Farmer Fred

knows that nouns name a person, place, or thing. Help him by circling the nouns in each sentence. The first two are done for you:

The pink pigs oinked.

The yellow chicks pecked.

The black horses trotted.

The green frogs hopped.

The goldfish burped.

The wheel squeaked.

The corn grew.

The fuzzy kitten meowed.

The sun shone brightly.

The rain fell fast.

The happy boy skipped.

The girl giggled.

The mouse hid.

The balloon popped loudly.

The black kettle whistled.

It is a terrific day! Your family has a new hot tub. Even better, it is a magic hot tub. It has colored lights that shine in the water. Each color does something different to the people in the hot tub. Each color has its own magic!

Rubber ducks live in the hot tub all the time! Draw one here:

What is your favorite color?

When you put that color light on in the magic hot tub, what does it do to you? Write two sentences about what happens. Be sure your sentences start with a capital letter and end with a period.
